Beijing is a historical city which holds very important geo political position, known for rich culture and art, beautiful historic buildings and for its delicious traditional food and above all very loving and caring people “Beijinger”. We are eagerly awaiting the reception to all the participants with the same traditional warmth and zeal, the Beijing is known for world over.

The scientific program of the conference is a bouquet of major specialties in medical sciences including Medicine & Allied, Surgery & Allied, Orthopaedics, Gynae&Obs, ENT, Ophthalmology, etc. I am confident that the level of scientific sessions in the conference by senior faculty of medical fraternity from both the countries China and Pakistan will meet the desires and expectations of the participants.

I am extremely grateful to the organizing committee especially Prof. Keqin Rao, Vice President and Secretary General, CMA, Mr. Yongmao Jiang, Mr. Qinglong Meng and Ms. Weili Zhao for their day and night efforts in strengthening relations with Pakistan in the field of Medical Sciences.
